

WE NOMINATE

The membership of the Women's Auxiliary of Princeton Hospital that in the space of two swift years has accomplished wonders in serving the Hospital and its patients—and in interpreting the Hospital to the Princeton Community. While the Hospital Fete, scheduled for Saturday, June 5, at the Columbus Boychoir School and involving several hundred volunteer workers, is the most spectacular project yet sponsored by the Auxiliary, its achievements since it was brought into being in April, 1952, were emphasized this past week by its Third Annual Meeting at which the activities of the 16 affiliated organizations constituting the Auxiliary were sketched in detail.

There is apparently no limit to what the Auxiliary can, and will, undertake. Altogether, during the year 1953-54, its 300-plus members invested upwards of 25,000 "woman-hours" in the Hospital. For instance, the Hospital Aid Committee, established 36 years ago, not only operated the Hospital Aid Shop, but once more sponsored Fall and Spring rummage sales that netted approximately $5,500 and enabled the Committee to pay off in full its $21,000 pledge to the Hospital Building Fund as well as to advance its far-seeing equipment-improvement program. The newest of the Hospital's four uniformed service groups, the Baby Picture Service, directed by representatives of the Methodist Church, reported that over 300 pictures of newly arrived infants had been delivered to grateful new parents.

The Hospital Volunteers, dedicated to lightening the burdens of trained personnel by assuming responsibility for non-professional hospital services, "man" the main-lobby desk from 9:30 a.m. until 9:15 p.m. every day of the year and, among other chores, supervise the library, distribute mail and newspapers and "do everything within their power to make a patient's stay more pleasant." Trained in the hospital and thereby qualified to assist nurses with everything except the administration of medicines and hypodermics, 28 Red Cross Nurses' Aides each "put in" 200-250 hours from September through June, with a dozen others assisting with the Blood Donor Program and the Hospital Pediatrics, Obstetrics and Medical Clinics.

Even landscaping falls within the Auxiliary's province. Three different clubs—the Garden Club of Princeton, the Stony Brook Club and the Hopewell Valley Club—individually and collectively completed planting projects in the "Hospital Mall." The Friendship Club gave the proceeds of a winter dinner to provide Christmas presents for all patients and to help purchase baby equipment. The long-needed Medical Library benefited from a dinner-dance given by the Doctors' Wives and on four special occasions, Hallowe'en, Christmas, St. Valentine's Day and Easter, the Women's Auxiliary of the Lions Club saw to it that there was special entertainment in the Pediatrics Ward. All affiliated groups shared the expense of moving and planting a Christmas tree and it was the Auxiliary that planned Christmas parties for the Hospital staff and employees.

For their devotion to the best interests of the institution which is Princeton's "first and last line of defense," for personifying the ideals of community service and neighborliness; for unselfishly working together for a common purpose; these members of the Hospital Women's Auxiliary are Town Topics' nominees for

Topics of the Town

Note on the Times. The Mc-Carthy-Army hearings on radio and television have brought about the formation of informal luncheon clubs by women of the community. Small groups gather daily in a neighbor's home, bringing their own sandwiches and paying rapt attention to the carnival from the capital.

One such group reports that after Senator McCarthy has been handling his 20th century inquisi-

$1 May Win You $1,000. A large jug filled with small pink pills will be on display at the corner of Nassau and Witherspoon Streets starting Saturday as part of the Hospital Fete. The Fete will be held on June 5 at the Columbus Boycholar School grounds, Rosedale Road.

For $1 an entry, passers-by will guess the number of small pink pills in the large Jug. The closest estimate will win the $1-000 merchandise bond donated by L. Baumberger & Company to the hole-in-one tournament earlier this month. It was stipulated that if no actual hole in one was made, the bond would become the property of the hospital.

The pink pill jug will go on display Saturday morning at 10, and will be on view again from Tuesday until the day of the Fete.
If it rains, the contest will be run from the Western Union office at the corner of Nassau and Witherspoon. Mrs. Richard B.
Whitney heads the committee that will direct the contest.

The talent show, to be staged from 5 to 6 on the afternoon of the Fete, has enrolled additional performers. Frank Schmetz and Lorin Zissman will direct this event.

Michael McKeuzie, Princeton Country Day, and Hugh Goodheart, Quarry Street School, will play piano solos. Bobbie Gaylord, Peggy Bayer Dance School, will tap dance. Deane and Alan Jensen and partners from the Peggy Bayer Dance School will demonstrate ballroom dancing.

Joyce Ehart, Tad Cantrell and Betty Graven from the Quarry Street School will form a trombone trio and Bob Hoyer from Quarry Street will play a clarinet solo. Felix Vanderstucken and Sheff Van Vranken, Princeton Country Day School, will give a magic show.

Members of the Princeton Ballet Society will square-dance, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs.
L. Wendell Estey. The Columbus Boycholar will sing at 12:45 and again at 3 and 8 p.m. Charabel, the Howdy Doody clown, will appear at 2:30 and 3:30.

Clearview Associates, the corporation that owns the Princeton Shopping Center, will contribute to the Hospital Fete one day's rental from the stores in the project. This amount, and all other proceeds from the Fete, the guessing contest and the golf and tennis tournaments, will benefit Princeton Hospital.

Shriners to Gather Here. A three-day celebration has been planned to take place here this weekend by a dozen Shrine Temples and Courts from several eastern States. Khufu Temple
No. 3120 and Khufu Court No.
118, Daughters of Isis, of Princeton will be hosts on the occasion.

The principal event will be a parade Saturday afternoon at 2:30, starting from the Masonic Temple at John and MacLean Streets. Wearing regular Shrine attire and Oriental uniforms, the marchers will follow a route along John to Leigh Avenue, Bayard Lane, Birch Avenue, Witherspoon, Wiggins, Moore, Nassau, Chambers, Hulth Streets and back to John. Several units will

It's New to Us

How to Build a House. We don't intend to give you detailed advice on the subject of rafters and roof-trees. But we should like to recommend a booklet that you may find useful even if somebody else is building your house. The pamphlet is available for free at the Tri-County Lumber Company in Cranbury and it's written by Everett S. Owens who has written other manuals for the convenience of home-builders.

"How to Build a House" is valuable for its tables, like the one to use when you begin to estimate quantities of bridging. It also has a nailing schedule, a table that gives the length of common rafters, a pitch table, a table for framing hip and valley roofs and several pages of FHA suggested construction details.

For your finished house, Tri-County has an O'Brien paint-book: an architect and decorator's guide for selecting and mixing correct colors. The manual contains not only specifications for using the paints, but also color chips about three inches square. These chips are bound spirally in two separate columns so you can flip each piece back and forth and try it against the chips in the next column.

In this way, you have an infinity of color combinations for experiment. On the back of each color sample, the O'Brien people tell you how much of what colors to mix in order to achieve the color on the sample.

The Tri-County Lumber Company is also interested in a cupboard-door catch called the Marvel. This catch is designed to hold a door shut with an easy hand push. And once pushed, the door will stay, and won't come swinging against your head when you aren't looking. Marvel will even hold a warped door shut, they say.

Summer Baby? If your child is going to be born in the warm months of summer, give some thought to your last-minute comfort and invest in a bathing suit at The Maternity Shop on Tulane Street. These suits, in printed cottons and denims, are designed with separate underpants that have elastic at the bottom of a bloomer-like leg. The bathing suit itself, with a wide skirt, goes over the top.

We saw one in a flame red tropical print, another in gingham, some that were lightly ribbed cotton, a brown and bright orange that would be fine with a tan, and lots of unobtrusive blues, including navy, if you'd like to be as inconspicuous as possible. Prices are $8.99 and $10.95.

For a drier kind of fun, choose a chambray play set with Bermuda or regular length shorts and a top with wide, overall straps. One suit in this style is made of ticking in ivory and black stripes with deep pockets and iron buttons that go all the way down.

An unusual ensemble of skirt, shorts and blouse is made of cotton in a ribbed shen. Shorts and skirt are black, the shirt is a dusty pink that looks bright because of the glow in the fabric.

Separates hang all along the rack. Here's a gingham middie in red with a white bib; an embossed cotton with scarecrows on its white field; a window-pane check with unusual belted back; a white linen-like top with no sleeves and Parade on Monday, Archibald Alexander, State Treasurer and former Under Secretary of the Army, will speak Monday at the Battle Monument, climaxing the annual Memorial Day parade.

Sponsored by Princeton Post No. 76, American Legion, the parade will start at 10:30 from Princeton Avenue. It will move up Nassau Street to St. Paul's and the Princeton Cemetery, where wreathlaying ceremonies will be held, and then proceed to the Battle Monument.

Numerous organizations from the community will be in the line of march. Music will be provided by the Princeton High School band.

Mrs. Carlson Named. Mrs. Corbelle C. Carlson has been named president of the Women's Auxiliary of Princeton Hospital, succeeding Mrs. Donald W. Griffin. Other officers for the next 12 months are Mrs. Edgar S. Smith, vice-president; Mrs. Norvell B. Samuels, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William G. Mollenkopf, recording secretary; and Mrs. John J. Kringer, treasurer. Mrs. Griffin will become one of two new members-at-large of the auxiliary's governing board with Mrs. Robert D. McGilvra, Mrs. R. Kenneth Fairman is the third such member. Mrs. Willard G. Rainey will head the 1954-55 nominating committee.

Letters to the Editor. Opinions on two current matters are expressed in letters received this week:

To the Editor of Town Topics:

As parents of Princeton High School seniors we wish to express our appreciation to the Lay Council for the successful Breakfast Dance given at the Nassau Tavern following the Senior Farewell Dance on May 14. This was an innovation, the outcome of which we availed with confidence and interest, and it is gratifying to us that the affair was a success far beyond our expectations.

The seniors themselves were enthusiastic in their appreciation. We have heard that the Nassau Tavern has expressed its hope that the party will be repeated; the Triangle Club, through its representatives, complimented the audience on its reception of the seniors; and the Junior Chamber of Commerce who acted as hosts are eager to repeat their role next year. What better recommendation could there be?

The books say that ads should be short. Ads should have pictures. This ad is different. In exchange for a few minutes of your reading time, it will give you valuable information. So, if you intend to invest in a new car soon, it will be to your advantage to continue reading.

Purchasing A New Car

Unbiased reports on 1954 cars are now available in the May issue of Consumer Report. One of the most reliable, prepared by an organization with no special interests, nor advertising pressures, is well worth the 35-cent investment at the newsstand. (They buy their own cars for testing purposes, at retail.) Without the inconvenience of shopping dealer show rooms; you can get accurate, non-technical and technical information on the 1954 automotive merchandise. You will get comparisons on makes, models, performance factors, riding qualities, power steering, automatic transmissions, trade-in values and many other factors. Such information has dollar and cents value, when you go to buy your new car, and eliminates much confusion during the period when advertising agencies are insulting the intelligence of most of us.

THE DESOTO V-8 FIRE DOME AGAIN TAKES TOP RATING when it comes to rating cars by price class. Quoting in part from these articles "The DeSoto may be regarded as the best balanced car in the group—moderate in weight, with almost the smallest displacement (but not the least powerful) engine, reasonably good gas mileage, excellent brakes, and reasonable steering ratio." "The car has a very good frequency-of-repair record; its potential resale value is better than average."

FOR THE PLYMOUTH CAR THE REPORT HAS THIS TO SAY: "Its riding qualities are far and away the best in its price range, and better than those found in many cars selling for much more. The Plymouth's quality is generally better than it was on last year's model." "No other station wagon equals the easy-riding, over-the-road comfort of the Plymouth Suburban, which steers and handles like a passenger car."

WE URGE EVERY CAR OWNER to check reports such as this, before buying any car. Read the unbiased accounts of the good and bad points of the new cars. Then we invite every prospective buyer of a new automobile to come in and drive the new 1954 DESOTO FIRE DOME V-8 or the PLYMOUTH SIX. A few minutes at the wheel, added to the words of the experts, will convince you that the DESOTO and PLYMOUTH is the best in its class—and the 1954 car for you.

of too much milk, a large part of it being shipped in from other states. That milk, of course, is being purchased by the dealer for a cheaper price than the New Jersey milk, but it is no benefit to the consumer as he pays the same price wherever the milk is produced.

Now there are several fine young farmers near Princeton, friends and neighbors of Princeton people. They and their families do most of their shopping in Princeton.

These young farmers would like to get a start in dairying. If people will find out where their milk is coming from and take milk from a dairy whose milk is produced in New Jersey, they would be helping these young neighbors and the dairy industry in New Jersey.

Only the people can help, as milk is now being shipped in by

A RETIRED DAIRYMAN

Anniversary Observed. The oldest oil heating company in Princeton observed its 20th anniversary this week. Officers and employees of the Princeton Fuel Oil Company, which was organized May 26, 1934, attended a dinner and entertainment on Wednesday at the Squatters Grove on Quaker Road to mark the occasion.

Princeton Fuel Oil was founded by a group of business men in the community who named John F. Hoff, Jr. as their president. From a small storage plant and a single truck, the company grew rapidly until it had undertaken in 1940 the construction of one of the State's largest oil plants. This was completed before the war on the company's present Alexander Street location.

During the course of its two decades in the community, Princeton Fuel Oil has accomplished a number of "firsts" in its field (see advertisement, page 5, for principal details.) All petroleum products and a complete oil burner service are offered. Joseph S. Hoff, 2d, who served with the Army Air Corps during the last war, has been with the company

Cramer to Bogert, Princeton's Hudson dealer, formerly Cramer Motors, is now known as Bogert Motors and will continue in its original location on State Route 206. It now carries the name of one of the founders of the original company, Edwin Bogert.

The firm sells Hudson Hornets, Wasps and Jets, as well as used cars, and provides complete servicing facilities. A free pick-up and delivery service is provided. (See page 19 for the latest Hudson announcement.)

Cooperation Asked. Dr. William Kleinberg, Health Officer in Princeton Township, has reminded residents of that municipality that garbage must be wrapped for collection and placed within a sanitary container.

The collection agency has complained of several cases of non-compliance, Dr. Kleinberg said. He added that further complaints will result in legal action by the township under terms of the ordinance governing the matter.

Hun Makes Commencement Plans. Dr. Ralph C. Hutchison, President of Lafayette College, will be the commencement speaker at The Hun School exercises on Saturday, June 5. The Commencement will mark the close of the school's 40th year. Weather permitting, the exercises will be held on the grounds outside the main building at Edgerstowne.

Diplomas will be awarded to 25 graduates by John P. Poe, president of the board of trustees. Dr. Paul R. Chesebro, headmaster, will be in charge of the program. Seniors, members of their families, faculty and trustees will be guests of the school at a buffet luncheon following the ceremonies.

Report to the Shareholders. Assets of the Nassau Building and Loan Association have climbed to $850,084.71, an increase of $61,796 over the previous year. These figures, covering the fiscal year ending April 20, 1954, were announced by the secretary of the association, Arthur L. Everett, in his annual report to the shareholders.

Most of this growth came from a net increase in mortgage loans of about $154,500. This means that 31 members of the association have bought or built homes in Princeton over the last year. To meet the demand for new mortgages, the board of directors has borrowed $55,000, on a temporary basis, to fill the need.

Net earnings for the year were $33,532.47, an increase of about $7,860 over last year. The association had, at the end of the year, reserves and undivided profits of $101,706.06 which is over $18,000 above the maximum required by the State Department of Banking and Insurance.

Because of the favorable year, the association has been able to apportion a 4% dividend of $23,523.53 on installment shares and a 2½% dividend of $844.14 on income shares. The sum of $6,538.78 was added to undivided profits.

Commenting on the Association's financial position, Harry L. Renwick, President, pointed out that any funds invested in the organization would not only provide a safe return, but will make additional funds available to help members buy new homes in the Princeton community.

Dr. Hitti Retires, Dr. Philip K. Hitti has resigned his post as chairman of Princeton's Department of Oriental Languages and Literatures and Director of the Program in Near Eastern Studies. In announcing his retirement, President Harold W. Dodds also announced the appointment of Professor T. Cuyler Young as his successor. Dr. Hitti has been a member of the faculty since 1926 and will continue for the coming year as lecturer.

In addition to his other duties Dr. Hitti has been professor of Semitic Literature on the William and Anne S. Paton Foundation. A native of Shimal, Lebanon, he was graduated from the American University of Beirut and taught oriental history there after receiving his Ph. D. degree from Columbia.

When Princeton completed its plans in 1947 for a pioneering program in the Near East, Dr. Hitti was named its director. The program resulted in large measure from Dr. Hitti's efforts during World War II when selected military intelligence personnel studied in his department.

During the war and since, he has been adviser to several government agencies. In 1945 he was Adviser to the Arab State delegations at the organization meeting of the United Nations. He has also written and lectured extensively in his field.

High School Scholarship Fund. The sum of $831.60 has been turned over to Princeton High School to be used as scholarships for this year's graduating class. The money was raised by the High School Parent-Teacher Association.

The PTA obtains the necessary funds almost entirely from magazine subscriptions. Members of the fund-raising committee this year were Mrs. Arthur Wengel, chairman; Mrs. S. M. Christian, vice-chairman; Mrs. L. S. Norgaard, secretary; Mrs. C. Stanley Green, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Miller, Mrs. Roger O'Kane, Mrs. D. O. North, Mrs. James Arnold, Mrs. Walter Young, and Mrs. Edwin Kinahie. During the summer months, magazine orders may be sent to Mrs. L. S. Norgaard, 11 Rellingmende, with checks made payable to Princeton High School Magazine Committee.

Last year's scholarship winners were Peter Lappin, Suzanne Rudy, Patricia Hignarty, Barbara Randall, Henry Green and James Sculetati.

Sodality to Hold Crowning. Miss Lydia Finelli will crown the statue of the Virgin Mary at the annual May Crowning of St. Paul's Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality. The Crowning will be held on Sunday evening at 8 at St. Paul's Church.

Miss Finelli's attendants and court of honor are the Misses Betty Raccoppli, Mary Golden, Sue Ann Corcoran, Margaret Maxwell, Mary Luckin, Caroline Petna, Angelina Ruberto, Veronica Goeke, Diana Platt and Christine Pirone.

YMCA Sets Record

Raymond A. Bowers, chairman of the YMCA's 1954 membership invitation campaign, announced this week that more than 1,200 residents of the community have joined the association. A year ago, the number on the rolls was 964.

Termining the drive a "complete success," Mr. Bowers said that the high figure was made possible by the 127 men who extended invitations to their fellow residents to join. He pointed out that more than 30% of the boys in this community between the ages of 9 and 17 are members and participate in "Y" activities—a very high figure. The drive chairman expressed his appreciation to all who responded to the invitation.

son" will appear on the final program, June 19. Professor Spitzer's topic will be "Space Travel" and Professor Boyd's subject will be "Thomas Jefferson-The Papers and the Man."

Bike Olympics—With Prizes. A tricky obstacle course designed to test balance and ability to maneuver will be the highlight of the Bicycle Olympics to be held Saturday morning June 5, at 9:30 at the Princeton High School Athletic Field. All school-age cyclists are invited to compete. The only requirement is ownership of a bicycle.

The Olympics are part of a bicycle safety program sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The program on June 5 will begin with a bike inspection. Everyone who passes will receive a certificate, and everyone who participates will receive a Scotch-tie for his bike.

Both boys and girls may enter, and there will be prizes for the most skillful riders. There will be races, in addition to the obstacle course, and the Jaycees promise ice-cream as well.

Summer Reading Program. Mrs. Chapin's School will conduct a summer reading program of individual and small group instruction in two sessions. The first will run from June 4 to 30. The second session will start July 6 and run through July 27. Classes will be held from 8:45 to 10:30 each morning, Monday through Friday.

Registration can be made now at the school. Placement and diagnostic tests will be given at the beginning of each session.

Obituaries

Dr. Earl S. Taylor, 41, of 55 Westcott Road, died May 24 in Princeton Hospital after a long illness. He had been a member of the hospital staff as both a surgeon and general practitioner for the past eight years.

A graduate of Princeton University, Class of 1939, he received his medical degree from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University. He had served in New York and Boston Hospitals, and, during the war, with the 239th General Hospital in Europe. He attained the rank of lieutenant colonel in the Army Medical Corps.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Virginia Hanson Taylor, and two daughters, Judith and Gretchen. The service at the First Presbyterian Church Thursday morning will be followed by burial in the Woodlawn Cemetery, New York.

Firemen Are Busy

Occasionally going a full two months without a general alarm, Princeton hear its fire engines roll twice last Sunday within a space of a few hours.

At 11:10 a.m., a passer-by spotted smoke in the lobby of the First National Bank and turned in an alarm from the box at the corner of Nassau and Witherspoon Streets. Damage was confined to the scrapbasket in which fire had started and to the rag that had caused the smoke.

At 6:30 p.m., firemen were called to battle flames in the home of Harold Barbour, 17 Green Street. Police said a defective flue caused fire to break out between the walls of the house, into which a hole had to be chipped to extinguish the flames.

The New Jersey Poll

NEARLY HALF OF PEOPLE IN STATE SAY HEARINGS ON ARMY SHOULD CEASE

A New Jersey Poll survey just completed shows that among those who have heard or read anything about the McCarthy-Stevens investigations, 7% more people feel that they should be stopped than continued. (Forty-eight per cent say stopped; 41% say continued.)

Among those who have heard or read about the investigations, 9% more feel that no good will be accomplished by the hearings than feel that some good will result. Thirty-six per cent think some good will be accomplished by the hearings; 45% think no good will come of them.)

Survey results also show that about seven out of every eight voters in the state have heard or read about the investigations. When New Jersey Poll reporters asked the following question of the 87% who said they had heard or read about the investigations: "Do you think these investigations should be continued or stopped?"

The statewide results were:

Continued 41%
 Stopped 48%
 No opinion 11%

Those who think the hearings should be continued argue mainly that we might just as well get to the bottom of it and find out who is at fault. Those who think

John F. Van Marter of 37 Chestnut Street has been promoted to major in the Army Reserve. A veteran of 33 months' service in the South Pacific during the war, he is employed at the Belle Mead General Depot.

It is understood that, effective on Monday, the Princeton Printing Company will be operated by Arthur R. Wengel, president of the Wengel Service Corporation, whose offices are at 90 Nassau Street. The printing firm, located on Alexander Street, was established four years ago by Fred Van Deventer, who is reportedly on the verge of completing its sale to Mr. Wengel.

The results: 36%
 Yes

The third and final question in today's survey shows that among people who have heard or read about the investigations, those who side with Army Secretary Stevens outnumber those who side with Senator McCarthy by a better than a three to two margin, with neither side able to muster a majority in its camp.

"Judging from what you have heard or read up till now, whose side are you inclined to agree with—Senator McCarthy's or Army Secretary Stevens'?"

News of the Theatres

COMMUNITY PLAYERS

The Community Players' ambitious project of doing an outdoor "Taming of the Shrew" has been postponed (probably until next spring), and the organization has decided to present John Van Druten's "Bell, Book and Candle" for its third and final production of the year.

The comedy will be offered on June 16 through 19, probably the latest date ever for a Community Players' production (but not too far from the opening date of the University Players in Murray Theatre). The switch was made because of the fact that sufficient personnel isn't available in the traditionally busy first two weeks of June.

Frank Schmetz will direct "Bell, Book and Candle." Members of the cast will be A. Monroe Wade, Joann Kennan, Lorin Zissman, Harriet Wattress and Thomas Potter.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

Among the new members of the University Players company in Murray Theatre this summer will be Mr. Siletti, who is considered one of the most promising young performers from the echelon of young actors and actresses who are just a step away from Broadway prominence, in accord with theatre tradition.

Mr. Siletti is currently teaching at the Stella Adler school of acting in New York. He began acting at the age of 5 with his father's touring company in Italy and since coming to the United States before World War II he has acted in cities all over the country as well as in New York.

Producer Charles H. Schultz and Bill Butler, who will direct a majority of the plays, spent several days in New York interviewing applicants for this summer's company. Along with Mr. Siletti, they have chosen five other young actors and actresses to join those returning from the 1953 company to form what they believe will be an even better group than the one which had such great success last year.

The Players this year have expanded their schedule to eight weeks and are planning to stay together for four weeks on tour in Puerto Rico after the Princeton season. They will open here with Tennessee Williams' "Camino Real" on Monday, June 28.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Three Coins in the Fountain (Thurs. - Sat.) provides the girl meets boy, loses boy, gets boy story in triplicate. With a handsome CinemaScope setting of Italy in color, Dorothy McGuire, Jean Peters and Margaret McNaughton participate in the romantic adventure comedy with Clifton Webb, Louis Jourdan and Rossano Brazzi. The striking backgrounds are nicely blended with an engaging story.

Executive Suite (Sun. - Sat.) spends an absorbing hour before it reaches the destined happy ending. It's a highly-polished tale of hard-fought struggle between a big business, fought around the directors' table, in offices, homes and bedrooms. The story is a big one, with a variety of subplots, including several romances, but the movie-makers have held it together.

MGM assembled "the big cast" for this one. The combatants include William Holden, June Allyson, Barbara Stanwyck, Frederic March, Walter Pidgeon, Paul Douglas, Louis Calhern, Dean Jagger, Nina Foch and others. The picture will run for a week.

THE GARDEN

Ride Clear of Diablo (Fri.-Sat.) features plenty of action, bad villains, beautiful ladies and a quick-shootin' hero. Dan Duryea of the rustling set tries to trick honest Audie Murphy, a course that obviously leads to black eyes and considerable blood-letting. The picture ends in a blaze of Technicolor gunfire. Susan Cabot and Abbe Lane are the romantic participants.

Rhapsody (Mon.-Wed.) is pitched strongly to the popular taste, even in the many violin and orchestral selections which give the picture a striking musical background. This accompanies a story in which Elizabeth Taylor falls in love with Vittorio Gassman (as a pianist), is rejected, and marries violinist John Ericson, which also causes her anguish for a while. Louis Calhern is cast as Miss Taylor's father, Technicolor.

Phantom of the Rue Morgue (Thurs.-Sat.) finds Karl Malden as a mad zoologist, directing a rather violent gargantuan ape in a brisk series of horrible murders of assorted young ladies. Actually what he really wants is Patricia Medina. Vaguely related to Poe's "Murders in the Rue Morgue," the film presents a series of brutal deaths in graphic color photography. It turns out that both Malden and the ape are Freudian case studies.

CHOIR COLLEGE

The annual Talbott Festival of the Westminster Choir College will strike its most resonant note on Saturday with the impressive festival of massed choirs in Palmer Stadium. The week-long musical celebration concludes on Sunday with the college's 25th annual commencement at 3 p.m. in the Princeton University Chapel.

Friday's events will include the graduate choir concert under the direction of Warren Martin at 10:30 a.m. in the Westminster - Continued on Page 18

News Of The Theatre

Chapel. Part I of the "St. Matthew Passion" by Bach will be sung at 3:30 in McCarter Theatre, while Part II will be performed at 8:30 in the McCarter. The entire Choir College will perform the mass under the direction of Dr. John Finley Williamson, president and founder, with Dr. Alexander McCurdy as organist.
Among the eight choirs which will participate in the Palmer Stadium festival of matted choirs will be those of Princeton Baptist Church, the First Reformed Church of Rarick Hill, the Dutch Reformed Presbyterian Church, and the Princeton High School glee club, under the direction of Thomas Hilbish.

More than 2,000 singers will take part in the matted choir festival, and all of the choirs will be under the direction of the festival and alumni of the Choir College. The Princeton High School Band, under Walter Horner, will play during the procession into the stadium. Silver cups will be awarded to the adult and junior choir making the best appearance in the procession.

The cups and other awards were established by the late Mrs. E. Talbot, patron of the college and mother of Harold Talbot, current Secretary of the Air Corps and a Westminster trustee. Dr. Williamson will conduct the adult choirs and matted singing at the festival. Clyde J. Holt is general chairman of the Talbot Festival committee.

Musical contributions at Saturday's matted choir festival will include Harold Hedghech and Ralph Burrier of the faculty, and Harold Huffman, founder and director of the Columbus Boychoir. Members of the awards committee include Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Holt, Mr. Hedghech and Mrs. F. M. Thayer of Newton Square Pa. Mrs. Talbot's daughter, who will present the awards to the directors of the winning choirs.

BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE
Local summer theatre activity opens up this Saturday evening at 8:30 with the first presentation of "The Moon Is Blue" at the Bucks County Playhouse in nearby New Hope. The F. Hugh Herbert comedy hit will be played through next Saturday.

The stars of the comedy include Jerome Cowan as the amused wife, Judith Hunter and Hugh Simpson as the young romantic couple, and T. J. Halligan as Miss Hunter's irate father. The 16th season at the picturesque barn playhouse will be its first under the direction of Michael Ellis.

Mr. Ellis has assembled an outstanding cast for the second production of the Bucks season, "The Cocktail Party" by T. S. Eliot. The cast will include Basil Rathbone (as the psychiatrist), Uta Hagen (Colia), Ika Chase (Lavinia), Edith Best (Julia), Philip Bourneuf (Edward), Jerome Cowan (Alex) and Richard Waring (Peter). The attraction will run for two weeks, from June 7 to 19.

IT'S NEW TO US

dive for the vinegar. Shake out the salt from a pottery onion, the pepper from a garlic clove.

To go formal—serve from the black opaque plexiglass bowls and plates that are new to this shop. They look like ebony. Three particularly handsome ones are elongated ovals, shallow and plain. German sends a thin, very light-weight glass vase for claret, sherbet and so on. It's called "Nasau." The pieces are about $12 each and undressed as a drink of water.

A final wedding-gift suggestion is silver plate coffee service consisting of tray, pot, sugar and creamer for $20.

Coat and Half-Size. Women who must hunt for becoming half-size dresses will enjoy the collection at Elise Goupil, 215 Nassau. These dresses are voile, for the most part, although there is one handsome grey cotton cocktail suit and a grey cotton sundress and jacket trimmed with black velvet.

Voiles are printed in muted blue grey or rose, or perhaps charcoal on a paler grey. The charcoal one has a square neck with grey satin piping at the intricate collar. These dresses have insets of blue polished cotton at the neck to emphasize the color in the dress.

A white and black line dress has black coin dots and a neckline marked by triangles of black and white folded fabric. A quiet pastel has tucked V-neck and a small silver pin. These dresses are in the $24.95-$39.95 range.

A David Crystal daron is capesleeved yellow in standard sizes. Grey bands dotted with yellow frame the side. The side material is a textured fabric that won't wrinkle. Try it in grey and white stripe with mustard bands at sleeve and neck. Or look at it in a grey travel suit.

Chintz makes the youngest dresses at Elise Goupil. These have petticoats, empire waists, princess designs or gathered skirts and narrow straps. One has curious points up the front and back, held up by a shoestring affair. One or two chintzes are sparked with occasional brilliants.

Scotch Cousin. To the famous Kooler family comes a new relative—the Scotch grill, available at Urken's, 27 Witherspoon. It looks exactly like the Kooler, except for its functional difference. You remove the round metal top (use it for a tray) and underneath you find a grill and charcoal pan. Air holes in the bottom of the can provide ventilation. The plain finish won't burn off and the firepot is removable. It costs $6.95.

Carry with it a refrigerator called a Pleasure Chest, with galvanized lining and tray for ice. A spout on the side drains off accumulated water and the handle detaches for easy stowing. Ten by fourteen inches for $10.95.

While you're broiling the steak, keep the younger set busy with a sand-toy bag from Urken's for $7.95. It holds a sifter, two pails (different sizes) pump, watering can and some molds. Separate sand toys on the counter, too, for replacements.

If you're staying at home, recover your lawn chairs with a kit in heavy drill, pre-measured and pre-benched. It comes in sizes for yacht, sling, and deck chairs at 99c and $1.59.

Killer Kane will kill weeds as fast as you can walk over your lawn and stab the weeds with it—kills them just like an Amazonian blow-gun. It's a lethal shade of bright green for $1.98.

Sports in Princeton

One Eye on Annapolis. Princeton's baseball team, playing Rutgers at 4:30 on University Field Saturday afternoon, will be hoping to learn by the time the game is over that Army has beaten Navy in their traditional game at Annapolis. A victory for the cadets would leave the Tigers with a chance of tying for first place.

On the other hand, a Navy triumph will give the midshipmen their first Eastern League title since they joined the circuit immediately after the war. They go into the contest with a 7-1 record and success on Saturday will put them beyond reach. They would, of course, supplant Princeton as league-leaders.

Should Army win, Princeton would need victories over Yale and Cornell to gain a tie with the mid-dies. The Elis are currently scheduled to come here next Friday, June 4, for the league game that was rained out on May 8.

If it should rain June 4, they will stay here and play the following afternoon. If the league contest is held on Friday, the teams will then go to New Haven for a non-league fray Saturday. It gets complicated, but that's the normal situation in the league, what with ten teams all trying to play each other in seven weeks in the face of eastern seaboard weather conditions.

Cornell is supposed to come to University Field on Monday or Tuesday, June 7 or 8. The game with Ithacans was rained out on April 18, and they never found it feasible to get back this way.

If Navy wins outright or if Yale beats Princeton on the 4th, the Cornell game will be cancelled. There is some chance, too, that if Navy wins the title this week-end, Yale won't want to come here on the fourth. In that event, the commencement game on June 12

Weather a Hindrance. Rain has played more havoc than usual with the 1954 schedule. If Navy brings the race to an end this Saturday, it will be the only team in the league to play nine games. Dartmouth, Brown, Penn and Princeton have all had two games postponed. Army, Cornell, Columbia and Yale one apiece. If Army beats Navy, it would have to reschedule its game with Brown to have a chance of earning a possible three-way deadlock with Navy and Princeton.

Chances of a playoff are virtually non-existent. Navy, however, has its sights set on a berth in the NCAA tournament. A round-robin among four District Two teams will be held at Easton, Pa. next Friday and Saturday, with the winner going to Omaha for the finals on June 10.

Looking for Victory. The game with Rutgers will find Princeton trying to end a four-game losing streak, which set in after the Tigers had won nine in a row. Amherst's 15-7 mauling of the Orange and Black began the slide downhill, with defeats at the hands of Navy, Army and Fordham following.

The line in the cadets (by a 4-1 count at West Point) came as the result of a combination of defensive lapses and inability to make the most of eight hits yielded by the Army's Frank Locates. It took a double and three successive singles (two of them infield rollers) to score the only run credited to the Tigers.

Joe Castle was not quite as sharp as he has been in the past, but only two of the runs he gave up were earned. Normal support shielded and at the plate would win for the Nassau senior. He will work against Rutgers this week-end.

Fordham also triumphed for its fifth victory without a defeat against Eastern League opposition this spring on a basis of Princeton weakness at the plate. The Tigers filled the bases with none out in the eighth but could not score, Johnny Easton forcing one runner on a roller to the box; Pete Millard popping out, and Ed Stimpson lying to center with two away.

Emery's Control Good. Dick Emery's wildness, a normal difficulty aggravated this season by a sore arm, has made him unable to finish a game since he beat Harvard, 5-1, on May 1. He hit the first batsman to face him in the Fordham game Saturday, the runner eventually scoring.

In the fourth, the Rams did not hit a fair ball past the pitcher's mound but still scored twice. This unusual feat was accomplished on three walks, two sacrifice bunts, one of which drew an error from Emery, and a wild pitch.

Craig McClelland came on to strike out a pinch-hitter with the bases filled and end the inning. The sophomore southpaw was lauded for the visitors' fourth run in the seventh, but pitched 3 1/3 innings of good ball. Jim Gibson, another sophomore, set Fordham down in order in the last two rounds.

The Tigers have been operating in reverse fashion from other Princeton aines in recent years. Last spring, for example, they started slowly but finished by winning 11 of their last 15 games and the league title. This season, they took 13 of their first 15 and are now nearly out of the running because of the four-game losing streak.

Other Results. The tennis players beat Harvard, 6-3, in the last Eastern Association match of the year and will not have a chance to claim undisputed possession of their fifth straight championship. Yale, also unbeaten, found itself unable to accept any of the dates Princeton offered for the rain-soaked match of May 8. The race has been declared a tie between the two colleges.

The 150-lb. crew beat Penn in the last quarter-mile of the Wood Hammond Cup race on Lake Carnegie. The lightweight had trailed for most of the mile and 5:16 affair, catching the Quakers just before the finish and winning by a scant six feet.

The lacrosse team also came from behind to win as it closed out the season. The Tigers trailed Rutgers by a huge 9-2 deficit at New Brunswick but made up the difference with a seven-goal plunge in the last 15 minutes and then won in over-time, 11-9.

The track team whipped Penn, 92 to 58, in its final dual meet. Dick Yaffa winning the 420 and 880 and Tom Wilson the shot put and the discus as they closed out their careers. Captain Tom Eplin's 488 lap on the last leg of the mile relay was the best of his many good races here, serving to win the event by seven yards after he had started ten yards behind the Penn anchor man. Harry Kandel's golders lost to Penn but trimmed Army in their last matches of the year. Both were decided by scores of 5-2.

Title on the Line. Princeton High School's track team will defend its Group III Central Jersey championship at Asbury Park this weekend. Coach Irwin Weiss hopes to have Carl Brown back in shape after an absence of two weeks through illness. Brown is

To the Ball Park

The YMCA has announced that it is planning a series of bus trips to major league baseball games this spring and summer. The first is scheduled for Saturday, June 5, when the Philadelphia Athletics play the Cleveland Indians in Connie Mack Stadium.

The bus capacity is 41 boys between 9 and 14. Those wishing to go should register with Ralph Papa at the "Y," telephone 8630. YMCA members will receive preference if more than 41 boys apply for the trip. Supervisors on the outing will be Papa, Wesley Marshall and Raymond Male.

one of the top school boy hurdlers in the State.

The Blue and White whipped Somerville last week for its 44th straight dual meet victory over a seven-year period. At Terry scored a triple victory to pace the Little Tigers. The State Championships at New Brunswick on June 5 will bring another highly successful season to a close.

All-Star Game Monday. The all-star game in the YMCA Midget Baseball League will be played Monday afternoon at 2 on Brookav Field. All members of the league are asked to march in —Continued on Page 21

ACROSS THE COUNTER

No doubt, you've read and heard about the "windshield pitting" that is plaguing parts of the country. Perhaps you saw the pictures in Life Magazine of the damage to auto windshields in Seattle.

Many explanations are offered for the mysterious "something" that puts pock-marks in windshields.

A professor of psychology says it might be "hallucinations." But the actual damage belies this view. Another professor thinks the damage material is similar to pieces of a meteorite. Many laymen blame "hoodlunism" and a "mystery dust," and another theorizes "hatching of sand fleas in glass." Police and insurance adjusters chalk it off to "gremlins." Everyone is baffled.

Regardless of what causes a damaged windshield, the right kind of insurance will replace it. The coverage is known as "Comprehensive." It not only includes glass breakage, but also fire and theft, and unusual damages such as a tree blowing down on a car.

For protection from "gremlins," "windshield pox," or from any other kind of automobile hazard, place your car insurance with us.

Call 0400 or visit our office right away.

the Memorial Day parade that morning—in uniform.

Players—three from each team—who will represent the American League are Wayne Martin, Douglas Rigg, Larry Reuter, Tom Cooke, Joe Moore, Gilbert Fisher, Tom Turner, Paul Freeman, Arnold Skar, Paul Cunningham, Jim Jones, Tony Ross, Howard Sullivan and Michael McLean.

National League representatives will be Dave Smith, Silas Mossey, Tom Corsura, Bill Saker, John Burholder, Ricky Hurford, Tom Petrone, Tom Brophy, Tony Bocanuso, Ken Wilson, Bill Haak, Dave Wright, Travis Weber, Jim Barbour and Harry Norton.

Wendell Beecher will manage the American League all-stars, with George Greene handling the National League entry. Assisting in a managerial capacity will be Quinn McLoughlin, Del White, Frank Mountcastle, John Landis, Louis Higgins, Henry Hallagan, Simms Bliss, Joe Wright and Carl Troxell.

Results in league play during the past week: Red Sox 7, Yankees 0; Indians 4, Giants 2; Pirates 7, Cards 0; Dodgers 16, Athletics 2; Indians 19, Athletics 3; Pirates 7, Red Sox 0; Tigers 10, Yankees 9.

PCD Wins Two More. Princeton Country Day School's baseball team, unbeaten in interscholastic competition, won another pair of games last week after rain had washed out its return contest with Valley Road. The Blue and White had won the first meeting between these schools, 9-8.

Freddie School's juniors were turned back at Hightstown, 9-2. Chris Shannon took over the pitching duties for John Burbridge after the latter had hurt his foot early in the contest.

The school also triumphed in the annual father-and-son game, coming from behind to win by a 10-9 count. Its record for the year is now 7-1-1, with the lone defeat sustained in the contest with the alumni.

Hun Players Busy. Hun School will enter Pete and Jim Bostwick, Joe Watson and Dick Canole in the one-day Lawrenceville School invitation tournament on Saturday. The Red and Black tennis team completed a good season with a 6-2 record, losing only to Lawrenceville and Pingry and defeating the Elizabeth school in a return match to end its 38-game winning streak. Other members of the team are Ivan Braka, John Matheke and Steve Hess.

Four members of the school represented Hun Wednesday in the New Jersey Headmasters and Coaches Association golf tournament, held at Blairstown. The group included the Bastwick brothers, Joe Gelb and Dick Blank.

Worth Watching. Sons of two Princeton athletes of another era are ready for varsity careers that appear to be extremely bright.

Edward L. McMillan, Jr., has been elected captain of the freshman baseball team, which compiled a 7-2 record. Coach Matt Davidson, calls him "the most promising freshman catcher I have seen at Princeton." His father, captained Princeton's 1925 football team and gained All-American acclaim as a center.

George T. Dunlap, Jr., was an outstanding member of this season's undefeated freshman football team. His father, Princeton '32, is a former national amateur champion in the sport.
